

Christian workers are sharing God's love by providing clean water and writing "God loves you" on the containers.