

How the Shirey kids serve

They share God's love by giving cookies or bread to hungry people who come to their house.

They make characters out of balloons and then share Bible stories with the children.

They prayerwalk with their parents, praying that the Aukan people will come to know Jesus.

They play with the Aukan children while their parents share their faith or lead Bible studies with the adults.