

Center of Promise

Can you imagine a ministry where Muslims line up down the sidewalk to get in? James,* a Southern Baptist worker in a large European city, sees it every day. James works at a refugee center which feeds more than hungry stomachs.

name changed*

“We have Muslims lined up at our door to be fed both a hot meal AND the Word of God. The Gospel of Jesus Christ is being openly proclaimed to approximately 500 refugees (mostly Muslim) each week,” he says.

How much does this priceless ministry cost?

- Rent for the center is $1,840 per month.
- A bag of grocery items provided to refugees is $7.
- Each hot meal costs less than a $1.
- A complete Bible in the Farsi language, which most of the refugees speak, is just over $16.
