

Oklahoma Baptist University soccer coach Michael White (far left), his daughter Hannah (second from left) and members of the team visited schools while on a mission trip to Brazil. They talked about soccer, about life in the U.S. and also about Jesus and how to know Him personally.

